

HRW: Sri Lanka: President's New Term Time for Accountability

Written by Anton Philip

Wednesday, 27 January 2010 20:17 - Last Updated Wednesday, 27 January 2010 20:29

---

UN Secretary-General Should Work for Independent International Investigation

January 27, 2010

(New York) - United Nations Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon and key international actors should take steps to bring accountability for Sri Lanka's grave human rights violations so that the thousands of victims will not continue to be denied justice during President Mahinda Rajapaksa's second term, Human Rights Watch said today.

More